4th Annual Bowling for Boobies Fundraiser Gets Big Lift from Holly Madison's "Double D's"

“The Girls Next Door” star and friends enjoy raucous and rowdy “Girls Night Out” at Lucky Strike Lanes in Hollywood

Los Angeles – October 14, 2008 – Playboy star Holly Madison and girlfriends Cristal Camden, Kelly Carrington and Jayde Nicole teamed up on Monday night at the 4th Annual Bowling for Boobies event, helping to raise money and awareness for local women afflicted with breast cancer. Holly’s team, “The Double D’s,” competed passionately against seven other teams including “Nippoleon Boobaparte” and “Gutter Girls,” with the only loser being breast cancer.

Initial fundraising estimates indicate that more than $50,000 was raised for the event. The proceeds raised from this event help Busted Foundation provide monetary assistance to local women experiencing financial challenges as the result of fighting and living with breast cancer. Donations go directly to support these women who are overwhelmed with medical bills and their ongoing treatment.

Despite the serious nature of the cause, there was no shortage of laughter and antics at the highly social, often outrageous event. Competing bowling teams included “Nasty Habits,” “Nippoleon Boobaparte,” “Gutter Girls,” “Total Package,” “Champagne Splits,” “Cult of The Eye,” “The Spares” and Madison’s team, “The Double D’s.”

“I am incredibly honored and overwhelmed to be a part of such an outpouring of support. My dream is that in the near future no woman will experience the fear of wondering how they will pay for medical care. Together we can make it happen!” said Stefanie LaHart, founder of Busted Foundation.

Those not in the area who wish to contribute are encouraged to make a direct donation of any amount online via the Web site.

All told, prior Bowling for Boobies events have raised almost $100,000 to benefit women fighting breast cancer.
